

lead(her)

ANNUAL REPORT 2023

STRIKE ANYWHERE

STRIKE A MATCH PROGRAM UPDATE

118 women in 2022, 98 women to date in 2023.
1,110 women served since inception in 2016.

MENTOR OF THE YEAR 2022
LOREDANA COOPER
(PICTURED ON RIGHT)

MENTEE OF THE YEAR 2022
CHARLA WOOD
FOUND(H)ER OF THE YEAR 2022
BETH GRABIN

2023 girl on fire awards

“ My mentor has expanded my network, supported me in my career and licensure goals, and helped me feel like I fit in in QC. ”

THE DATA

Percentage of Strike a Match mentoring program survey respondents report growing skills in the following areas:

60%

40%

20%

0%

ECONOMIC BENEFITS

- 18% of women reported receiving a promotion
- 22% transitioned to a new role
- 31% skilled up/completed new training

“ Each time we meet and chat I feel I learn more and grow closer to an understanding and belief that I am valuable and enough both in my work and in my personal life. ”

Life is better by the fire

BE A MENTOR!

In just one hour a month you can make a difference.

thank you

A Found(h)er knows mentorship matters and has committed to a level of giving that is collectively responsible for ensuring the fire is fueled for years to come.

found(h)ers

A Found(h)er knows mentorship matters and has committed to a level of giving that is collectively responsible for ensuring the fire is fueled for years to come.

- Cheryl Kung
- Tracy Schwind
- Laura Sivertsen
- Melissa Pepper
- Mary Macumber Schmidt
- Amanda Geffre
- Melissa Taylor
- Beth Grabin
- Laura Genis
- Sam Schlouch
- Lori Sullivan
- Julie Abramowski
- Luann & Kirk Haydon
- Deanna & Rob Woodall
- Dale & Marie Ziegler
- Debbie Schwiebert
- Barb Westerdale
- Anonymous

